Policy Statement

The Library’s purpose is to serve as a place for reviewing and selecting materials, reading, research, study, writing, cultural and intellectual collaboration, community engagement, and attending Library or community sponsored programs and meetings. In meeting this purpose and for the mutual enjoyment of everyone, the Montclair Public Library has established basic rights and rules to ensure a comfortable and safe environment at our library. This Code of Conduct is intended to prevent disruptions to Library services, ensure the safety of the public and Library staff, and maintain the security of Library property.

Regulations

First, we pledge to uphold the following rights for our patrons:

- Prompt, friendly, courteous, and respectful service at all times
- Equitable service regardless of age, sex, gender, gender identity or expression, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, nationality, religion, creed, race, color, sexual orientation, appearance, disability or any other protected group status
- Accurate, timely, and useful information
- Clearly identified library procedures and services
- Professional direction and guidance by trained and knowledgeable staff
- Opportunity to submit suggestions, comments, and concerns about all materials
- Confidentiality and privacy to the extent reasonably possible and in accordance with applicable law

Second, we prohibit any behavior that:

- Interferes with the use of the library by others
- Creates a risk of injury to oneself or others
- Inhibits the work of library staff
- Disrupts the peaceful enjoyment of the library
- Creates a risk of damage to library, personal or staff property and/or library grounds

A list of specific unacceptable behaviors will be posted at the Service Desks.
This Code of Conduct must be observed by everyone in the library, on library grounds, or participating in a Library program offsite. Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in suspension or revocation of Library privileges, exclusion from the Library, and/or criminal prosecution.

Enforcement

Anyone unable or unwilling to conduct themselves in accordance with the Code of Conduct will be notified by staff that their behavior is unacceptable. If a patron does not correct his/her conduct, the patron will be asked to leave. If the patron will not leave, Library staff will call the Montclair Police. In any extreme or threatening situation, the Police will be called immediately.

Anyone whose privileges have been suspended or revoked, or who experienced other corrective action by a member of the Library staff, may submit a written request to have the decision reviewed in accordance with the Appeals Process for Disciplinary Action Policy [CUS-3].

Unacceptable Behaviors

Any conduct that materially disrupts the use of the Library facilities, collections, or services is defined as unacceptable and is prohibited. Patrons are urged to report disruptive behaviors immediately to staff so appropriate steps can be taken.

Examples of disruptive or unacceptable behavior while in the Library, on Library grounds, or while participating in a Library program are grouped into the following categories and include, but are not limited to:
